

Supporting our Customers

At Hutch, we understand that sometimes our customers need a little extra support at different points in their lives. We are focused on supporting your needs with sensitivity, consideration & compassion.

What is vulnerability?

Vulnerability can occur to anyone at any time in their lives. It can affect people in various ways, such as;

- Disability
- Family & domestic violence
- Language or literacy barriers
- Cultural background
- Personal circumstances, including financial hardship
- Health conditions – temporary and ongoing

When can I ask for help?

We encourage you to let us know of any additional support you may need as we are committed to supporting your needs where we can. Our staff are trained to support customers experiencing vulnerability and will confidently work with you or your representative to ensure we offer additional support where possible.

Protecting your privacy.

Protecting your privacy is important to us. If you would like to know how we handle your private information, you can access our privacy statement.

Nominate a representative

If you are experiencing communication challenges, such as hearing or speech difficulties or a language barrier, you can nominate a representative on your policy such as a friend, family member or a support worker who can speak to us on your behalf. Your representative must be over 18 years old and we must receive your authorisation to nominate them on your policy/account.

How do I access additional support?

If you need additional support, it is important to know what resources are available to you. Here are some links to helpful information, tools and services:
